What things I like

Matt is not fast but he is very sincere. He acts carefully in every development. Consult with your team about things that are not clear and proceed with your work.

What he has to be improve

On a project that lasted 15 weeks, he did not miss team online/offline meeting. He showed very sincerely attitude. However, he needs to have more activity behavior. Because he is so passive that he can not make the decision himself. Furthermore, Sometimes he is so prudent so that the team can not expect fast progress. If he can fast react and decision, he can be an excellent team member.

Moon

Moon was contributed as a great Corder. Also she had contribute hugly in whole documentation. The meeting which had run in last 15 weeks, she was mainly manage whole Team conference Note and provide the work transparency about team progress. Not only the Team conference Note, she was covered function developing boardly.

1. Whole Web page Design
2. Documentation
    a. UI performance Guide
    b. Project Charter

What things I like.

He was very active throughout the project, understanding and working on the project. He was also very sincere about the project and didn't miss a single meeting.

What he has to be improve

In beginning period on project, Xin could not understand the right responsibility as a UX designer. Also, he showed weakness in PHP Coding. To be a good corder, he need to more understand the responsibility for a task and position. And in the Web programming, php is hugely important part. He need to have better understand of using PHP/HTML.
